

Minimum Continuing Legal Education FAQs

Attendees participating in “live” webinars will be asked to fill out a short registration form prior to joining a presentation. The conferencing company hosting the event will monitor the logon and logoff times of each participant. Upon completion of the event, each participant who logged into the webinar and watched it in its entirety will be emailed a course evaluation and a link to the CLE certificate of attendance.

Attorneys viewing live presentations as a group must register one person on behalf of their group. The practice manager coordinating the event must also submit their firm/company name, along with the individual names and email addresses of each participating attorney. Please submit this information victoria_redgrave@tcdi.com. Upon completion of the webinar, each participant will be emailed a course evaluation form that addresses particular aspects of the event and that requests verification that the event was watched in its entirety. Upon submission of this evaluation form each attorney will receive a link to the CLE certificate of attendance.

Attorneys viewing pre-recorded webcasts are asked to fill out a short registration form prior to watching the presentation. This form will ask registrants to note the date and time at which the presentation is going to be viewed. The submission of this registration form will prompt an email to be sent to the registering attorney that contains a link to a course evaluation form. After viewing the presentation, participants must fill out the evaluation form which addresses particular aspects of the presentation and requires verification that the event was watched in its entirety. (Form responses, along with the date and time of submission will be captured and noted in our CLE participant records.) Upon submission of this evaluation form the submitting attorney will receive a link to the CLE certificate of attendance.

Attendees are encouraged to interact with presenters and other attendees through the “chat” feature available on “live” webinars and/or by submitting questions via the course evaluation form. Questions will be responded to via email and will also be added to an evolving list of discussion topics and FAQs posted on www.tcdi.com.
